SFS Academy Sets World Benchmark Record

On November 13 and 14, 2022, SFS Academy, a CBSE school in Electronic City, Kammasandra, Bengaluru, set three world records in a row as part of the "SFS Academy World Records Festival 2022," an occasion intended to commemorate the 75th anniversary of Indian Independence and Children's Day. Elite World Records, Asian Records Academy, and India Records Academy were able to award world record titles as a result of the efforts of 2340 students and teachers.

Dr.P.M.Lawrence-Principal, proudly detailed "We focus education by which character is formed, the strength of mind is increased, and by which one can stand on one's own feet and by concentrating towards holistic development of every child with utmost care and competence, we also impart patriotism among children at all levels which we believe to pave way for good society and better future of our great nation"

BVM Global respects Culture and Language

Culture and heritage not only define us but also have a massive impact on our values and thoughts. Hence it is necessary to learn and understand our heritage to respect it. Kannada Rajyotsava — also called Karnataka Formation Day or Karnataka Day is extremely crucial in propagating this fact and has become an exceedingly important day by teaching us about the rich and varied traditions of Karnataka. This year was no different in this aspect as we navigated through melodious music and intricate dances, learning about long-forgotten folklore and discovering new cultures. This exposure encouraged everyone from primary to high school, to further learn about the unique and diverse cultures of Karnataka. The other segment of Kannada Rajyotsava is the language itself. Humans are extremely social beings. To be able to communicate our thoughts and feelings, we require languages.

Language is the primary tool that connects us and has made the transmission of culture and heritage possible. Contrary to popular belief, what makes a language great is often not its simplicity or fame but it is the mark that it leaves on your identity that truly matters. Hence, it is important to learn the language of where you live as it not only helps you in everyday conversations, it also creates a sense of belonging and remains with you for the rest of your days. The invigorating stories, arduous struggles and inspiring biographies are a treat to behold and teach you several life lessons that are insightful. Kannada Rajyotsava teaches you the importance of culture and language and why it is necessary to protect the future generation.

Managing Premenstrual Sundrome (PMS)

Key Points

PMS is the name given to the physical and emotional symptoms affecting your daily life in the 2 weeks before you have your periods and these symptoms usually get better once your periods starts. you should record your symptoms in a diary over two menstrual cycles in a row to help your doctor to make a diagnosis. There are wide range of options to help manage your symptoms and allow you to get on with daily life and whatever option you choose, continue to keep a symptoms diary for atleast 2-3 months as this helps to see whether a particular treatment is working.

What is PMS?

Nearly all women have some premenstrual symptoms before the periods. PMS is name given to physical and emotional symptoms affecting your daily life in the 2 weeks before you have your periods and usually get better when periods starts.

Each woman's symptoms are different, but most common include mood swings, feeling depressed, irritable or bad tempered, feeling upset, anxious or emotional, tiredness or having trouble sleeping, headache, change in appetite or cravings, feeling clumsy, fluid retention and feeling bloated, changes to skin or hair, sore or tender breasts. .

Symptoms can vary month to month, but tend to form a pattern over time. Between 2-4 in 100 women gets PMS sever enough to prevent them from getting on with their daily activates.

What causes PMS?

The exact cause of PMS is not known. it could be linked to the changes in the level of your hormones during your menstrual cycle. and body chemicals and neurotransmitters such serotonin and gaama -aminobutyric acid.

Karnataka Rajyosthava

On November 12, Electronic City Residence in Basapura held a splendid celebration in honour of the 67th Karnataka Rajyotsava, with honourable chief guest Shree R.J. Halli Nagaraja, a well-known journalist, poet, and author. The event began with a Veeragase folk dance and a Bhuvanaeshwari procession. Following that, guests hoisted the vibrant state flag in yellow and red, and a variety of kannada cultural events were presented. Both children and adults participated with zeal. Ma Ramamurthy was the first person to create and conceptualise the yellow and red flags for Karnataka State. Born in Nanjangud in 1918, he was the son of renowned author and independence fighter Veerakesari Seetharama Shastri.

Traffic Warden Organisation (T.W.O)

In order to assist the Bengaluru City Traffic Police in various enforcement and regulation activities, the Bengaluru City Police Traffic Warden came into existence on 30-08-1985.

The organization was setup with the following aims and objectives:

- *To make the road users aware of their responsibilities in respect of road rules
 - *To conduct road safety and traffic education campaigns in collaboration with traffic police for the benefit of motorists, pedestrians and school children
 - *To assist the traffic police in directing and regulating the vehicular and pedestrian traffic, whenever requested upon to do so
 - *To collect or formulate suggestions for improvement of traffic and forward the same to the higher authorities
 - *To report traffic violations whenever noticed personally by Traffic Wardens to the Traffic Police
 - *To report other offences committed by drivers of taxis / autorickshaws (such as refusal to go on hire, demanding excess fare etc) to the Traffic Police
 - *To assist the Traffic Police department in any other activities like organizing special drives and
 - *Traffic Warden, Bengaluru Traffic awareness campaigns in connection with traffic regulation, control and education
 - *To bring out publicity materials such as handouts, posters, booklets etc., for public distribution to inculcate safety awareness
 - *To organize traffic education campaigns and traffic training camps for school children in association with the Traffic Police
- These Traffic Wardens perform duties in their area twice in a week and few of them throughout the week and assist the Traffic Police. They also take part during special duties like Cricket match, Air show, religious functions etc., and work day and night with traffic police.

Global Art Art Competition Childrens Day

Children's day celebrations were held on Nov14th marking the birthday of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru across the city and students participated in various competitions. Due to the pandemic we had missed the celebration for the past two years. Globalart E-city in collaboration with Neo hospitals conducted a colouring and Drawing contest for children aged 5-15.

"Kindness to nature " was given as the topic on the spot and children came up with creative ideas of representation. Top 10 winners were awarded trophies.

Yet another collaborative activity by Globalart E-city with Cloudnine Hospitals, electronic city for the children of their staff and Outpatients visiting on Nov14th. Activities such as colouring, painting and solving puzzles were part of the event. Snack boxes were provided to all the participants. Globalart E-city takes pride in spreading the idea of creative drawing in the neighbourhood.
