Urge to Create a Pristine Surrounding

Concerned by the challenges faced, Electronic City Phase 1 residents emphasize the need for urgent action to tackle issues like widespread garbage dumping, inadequate lighting, and drainage problems in a bid to enhance the development of brand Bengaluru. The areas affected, including Gollahalli, Shikaripalya main roads, Zee School road, and Newton School road, require focused attention. The prevailing practice of relocating trash by the Hulimangala panchayat only exacerbates the situation. Local businesses' contribution to roadside dumping compounds the problem. Absence of efficient door-to-door collection has led to unsightly blackspots, while poor drainage seriously contaminates Shikaripalya lake, tarnishing the city's image. We urge the panchayat to take decisive steps towards effective waste management and sustainable development, thus contributing to a cleaner and more vibrant Bengaluru.

Air Pollution : Taking a deep Breath Shouldn't Come with Worries

The Air Quality Index (AQI) is a standardised system used to communicate the quality of the air in a specific area to the general public. It provides information about how clean or polluted the air is and what potential health effects might be associated with different levels of air pollution. The AQI is typically reported on a scale from 0 to 500, with higher values indicating worse air quality.

Range (AQI)	Impact
0 - 50	Satisfactory
51 - 100	Moderate
101 - 150	Unhealthy (Sensitive Groups)
151 - 200	Unhealthy
201 - 300	Very Unhealthy
301 - 500	Hazardous

Electronic City reports last two weeks (till 16 August) are and with the average of 84.5 which is Moderate with Air quality is acceptable; however, there may be a slight concern for some individuals who are unusually sensitive to air pollution. "Revamp transit, promote E-bikes, plant green, curb emissions."

77th Independence Day Celebration at Shriram Signiaa, Electronic City, Bengaluru

The vibrant community of Shriram Signiaa in ECity united patriotically to celebrate India's 77th Independence Day. The event featured a dynamic "Tiranga Yatra" procession led by volunteers, along with vibrant cultural performances and eloquent speeches by both children and adults. The community's commitment to unity, diversity, and patriotism was evident. President Jagannath Hirekodi emphasized the importance of preserving heritage and fostering collaboration. The celebration epitomized the fusion of tradition and modernity, reinforcing India's identity. The event united residents in upholding the nation's values and aspirations as the sun set on the commemorative day.

Pet Adoption vs. Buying: Making an Ethical Choice

When deciding between pet adoption and purchasing, ethical considerations should guide your choice. Adopting from shelters saves lives, aids animal welfare efforts, and addresses overpopulation. Shelter animals offer companionship, loyalty, and appreciation, making them gratifying additions to your life. A diverse range of pets, including specific breeds, can be found, each with a unique personality fit for various lifestyles. This choice contributes to responsible pet ownership and brings joy while knowing you've provided a home to a pet in need. On the other hand, buying pets from puppy mills and backyard breeders perpetuates cruel practices. Puppy mills prioritize profit over animal welfare, leading to health and behavioral problems in their poorly cared-for animals. Backyard breeders lack ethical standards and understanding, contributing to overpopulation and neglect. Pets from these sources often suffer from genetic defects, infections, and developmental issues. Supporting such practices inadvertently endorses animal abuse. Before deciding, assess your readiness for a lifelong commitment and consider adopting from shelters to offer a loving home to an animal in need. Remember, every purchase from mills or breeders denies a shelter animal a chance at a home. Your ethical choice can make a significant impact.

Managing Premenstrual Syndrome (PMS)

Key points

PMS is the name given to the physical and emotional symptoms affecting your daily life in the 2 weeks before you have your periods and these symptoms usually get better once your periods starts.

You should record your symptoms in a diary over two menstrual cycles in a row to help your doctor to make a diagnosis.

There are wide range of options to help manage your symptoms and allow you to get on with daily life and whatever option you choose ,continue to keep a symptoms diary for atleast 2-3 months as this helps to see whether a particular treatment is working.

What is PMS?

Nearly all women have some premenstrual symptoms before the periods. PMS is name given to physical and emotional symptoms affecting your daily life in the 2 weeks before you have your periods and usually gets better when periods starts.Each woman's symptoms are different, but most common include mood swings, feeling depressed, irritable or bad tempered, feeling upset ,anxious or emotional, tiredness or having trouble sleeping, headache ,change in appetite or cravings, feeling clumsy, fluid retention and feeling bloated, changes to skin or hair, sore or tender breasts.

Symptoms can vary month to month, but tend to form a pattern over time .Between 2-4 in 100 women gets PMS sever enough to prevent them from getting on with their daily activities.

What causes PMS?

The exact cause of PMS is not known. It could be linked to the changes in the level of your hormones during your menstrual cycle. and body chemicals and neurotransmitters such serotonin and gamma-aminobutyric acid.

Gone are those days when people used to miss the festivals of hometown. Bengalees in Bengaluru can now enjoy the extravagance and traditions of Durga Puja in Bengaluru itself. Rainbow socio cultural Association this year brings in the largest Durga idol in electronic city, reminding Bengalees of the spectacular display of Kolkata. The flea market will add on to the festive carnival flavour of the event. Gala celebrity programmes will entertain local Bengalees away from home. To add on to the spectacle of the event, Rainbow socio cultural Association is organising the first-ever pet friendly Durga Puja in Bengaluru, where people can enjoy the gala events as a whole family. Arrangements will be made for all, whether they have pets or not. If you are in Bengaluru this Puja, Rainbow socio cultural Association's Durga Puja event is the place to go.

Show and Tell - LKG and UKG

Presentation skills are important in the Kindergarten, as it helps in vocabulary building and instill confidence in a child. A Talk-Show activity had been organized for our preschoolers in school. They completely floored us with their superb performance. LKG put up a presentation on 5 senses, while UKG spoke interesting facts on their families. The day culminated with some family games with our UKG parents. Here are some of the pictures captured during the day!!

BVM - Radio Show

I was quite ecstatic when I was selected for the radio show. It was a unique program as a part of the Literary Club. The radio show was a wonderful experience for my teammates Manasvi, Ekambir, Narayan and Adithi. Our teacher Madhuparna mam guided us in the intonation and pronunciation.

I played the role of R.K Narayan who was one of the greatest writers. He has authored many novels and stories. My experience of representing him in the interview format with Ekambir was quite enriching in nature. I learnt to change my voice and pause after every word and to be relaxed throughout the program. My friends read one of his stories "A Snake in the Grass" to bring out the subtle humour in life.

I also read the stories of R.K Narayan written in a simple yet touching manner. The learning outcome from this experience was the understanding of the lifestyle of R.K Narayan and his down-to-earth stories, striking an instant chord. Overall, this gave me a clear view of how a radio show is being done in reality and the factors controlling its success.

BVM - French Day

The French Day was commemorated by organizing a special assembly. I was part of a group selected for singing a beautiful French song called á la Claire Fontaine. It was a wonderful experience learning this French song to recite in co-ordination.

Everything about the song, the lilting music, melodious tune, perfect pitch inspired us to render it flawlessly. When we rehearsed with the musical instrument, it came out well to our satisfaction. All of us were very enthusiastic to perform and garnered appreciation for the same.

There was a skit about Joan of Arc by class 9 students who brought the emotions of bravery, kindness and helplessness beautifully. The cast comprised a batch of students who glided through the scenes effortlessly. The story motivated students to develop patriotic feelings for the country.

Charts about famous French personalities were exhibited to help widen the knowledge about French. Overall, it was an amazing experience in terms of learning more about French day.

Celebration of Independence Day

An event driven by the residents to show their unity. Independence day celebrations began with a rally by the kids with Cycles & Skates. The slogans "Vande mataram" and "Bolo Bharat Mata ki jai" were called out loud during the rally to bring out the country spirit within the younger community.

March Past Parade, Flag hoisting by the senior citizens of the community followed by Speech, Dance, Singing and Instrumental performances by the children made the event entertaining. This was followed by a community breakfast. The residents felt happy and looked forward for more such community gatherings.
