Chikkanagamangala Lake Contamination

Fish kill at Chikkanagamangala lake in Anekal taluk raised concerns as residents claim contamination from a waste management plant. Leachate diversion by Bengaluru Solid Waste Management Limited is alleged, but the plant denies the charge, emphasizing residents' opposition to the plant's presence.

Leachate management is an important aspect of landfill operations to prevent contamination of groundwater and surrounding soil. Proper containment, collection, and treatment of leachate are essential to minimize the environmental impact of landfills.

These air-conditioned buses provide commuters with a comfortable and efficient transportation option between Brigade Road and Electronics City Wipro Gate, passing through key locations like Adugodi, Madiwala, and Bommanahalli.

Bengaluru Metro's E-City Extension Faces Delay

The launch of the RV Road-Bommasandra Line (Yellow Line) extension for Bengaluru Metro's Reach-5 has been delayed due to the deferment of the first batch of six-car train sets until mid-October. Titagarh Wagons and China Railway Rolling Stock Corporation are supplying coaches for the line, facing delays in components supply. This affects the proposed December launch. All trains expected by July 2024.

No Bus Shelters

Neglected Bengaluru taxpayers endure daily hardships at Electronic City, Silk Board, and Madiwala. Inter-state travelers lack basic bus shelters, left standing in dire conditions. Urgent attention needed from Bangalore administration BBMP for improved facilities and commuter well-being.

Making a Difference Without Adopting a Pet Through Passive Adoption

Passive adoption offers a way to support animal welfare and conservation without adopting a pet directly. This concept holds importance for those who can't adopt due to various reasons. It involves:

Financial Support: Shelters and organizations rely on funds. Passive adopters provide financial aid for animal care, aiding those awaiting permanent homes.

Education and Awareness: Passive adopters often become advocates, raising awareness about adoption, spaying/neutering, and responsible ownership.

Overcrowding Relief: By sponsoring shelters and adoption campaigns, passive adopters indirectly help reduce euthanasia due to resource constraints.

Wildlife Protection: Passive adoption supports conservation, habitat preservation, and research, aiding endangered species.

Key Points:

Passive adoption, or "virtual adoption," involves financially supporting shelters, sanctuaries, or conservation groups.

Engagement involves monetary contributions for animal needs.

Sponsorship programs offer updates on sponsored animals. Wildlife conservation is also supported through passive adoption.

Emotional Connection:

Despite not housing the animals, passive adopters form emotional bonds through updates and pictures.

It's a way to actively contribute to animal welfare and bridge the gap between non-adopters and animals in need.

Onam Celebrations at Concorde Manhattans

Concorde Manhattans celebrated the much-awaited Onam celebration on August 19. For this year, the event was titled - "Onnich Oru Onam" or "An Onam Together", signifying the bond shared between everyone.

The celebrations started with a giant pookkalam (floral decoration) set up by the residents reminiscent of the classic pookkalam laid out by the members of a family in Kerala on the Thiruvonam day. A traditional procession followed, in which the residents decked in traditional garb and accompanied by the King Mahabali, mesmerised the onlookers. A series of traditional games followed of which the highlight was the tug of war between various groups. A sumptuous feast was arranged with a traditional Onam Sadya that was graced by a record number of residents.

The next set of events were scheduled in the evening where the residents showcased their artistic talent on stage with a number of dances, songs, and even original compositions made by the little ones. Skits and a twist on the traditional Thiruvathirakali dance were the icing on the cake. The frolic didn't stop with the day's celebrations. Thiruvonam fell on August 29, and the residents marked it with another pookkalam, truly welcoming Onam to the apartment complex.

Onam Celebration At The Vedam School Ecity

Vedam School at Ecity, Bengaluru, came alive with festive spirit as students and teachers joyfully celebrated Onam together.

Psoriasis and Homeopathy: Understanding the Effects of Monsoon, & Winter
Introduction:

Psoriasis is a chronic skin condition characterized by the rapid buildup of skin cells, resulting in thick, red, and scaly patches on the skin's surface. It is an autoimmune disease, meaning the immune system mistakenly attacks healthy skin cells.

While conventional treatments for psoriasis include topical creams, light therapy, and systemic medications, some individuals seek alternative therapies like homeopathy. Homeopathy is a natural, holistic system of medicine that aims to stimulate the body's healing response. In this article, we explore the effects of summer, monsoon, and winter on psoriasis and how homeopathy can offer relief during these seasons.

Monsoon and Psoriasis: The monsoon season, characterized by increased humidity and occasional rain, can impact psoriasis differently in various individuals. Some patients may notice an improvement in their symptoms as the moisture in the air hydrates the skin, leading to reduced scaling and itching. However, others might experience flare-ups due to fungal infections, which are common during this season.

Homeopathy and Monsoon: Homeopathic treatment considers the changing symptoms and the patient's response to weather fluctuations. Medicines like Sulphur and Rhus toxicodendron may be prescribed based on the presentation of symptoms during the monsoon. Sulphur can help with dry, itchy skin worsened by humidity, while Rhus toxicodendron may be beneficial for joint pains or aggravated skin lesions due to damp weather.

Winter and Psoriasis: Winter poses several challenges for individuals with psoriasis. The cold weather can lead to dryness, causing increased skin flaking and discomfort. Additionally, spending more time indoors with heaters can further dehydrate the skin. Furthermore, lack of sunlight during winter can lead to reduced natural UV therapy, which may exacerbate symptoms for some patients.

Homeopathy and Winter: Homeopathic remedies for psoriasis during winter aim to alleviate dryness, itching, and other winter-induced symptoms. Medicines like Petroleum and Sepia may be prescribed based on the individual's specific symptoms. Petroleum can help with cracked, bleeding skin worsened by cold, while Sepia may be beneficial for psoriasis associated with hormonal imbalances, which can be influenced by seasonal changes.

Conclusion: Psoriasis is a complex condition that can be influenced by seasonal changes, including summer, monsoon, and winter. Homeopathy offers a holistic approach to address the underlying imbalances contributing to psoriasis and can help manage symptoms during different seasons. However, it is essential to consult a qualified homeopathic practitioner for personalized treatment and guidance. As with any medical condition, individuals with psoriasis should also work closely with their dermatologist to ensure comprehensive care and effective management throughout the year.

“Khelo Samsidh”- Samsidh Interschool Football Tournament

Coach me and I will learn, Challenge me and I will grow, Believe in me and I will win. Sports teaches you character, It teaches you to play by rules. It teaches you to know what it feels like to win and lose-it. Teaches about life. It was one such day at Samsidh today.

Samsidh HSR, hosted “ Khelo Samsidh” an Interschool Football Tournament as a part of the celebrations of National Sports Day.

We had participants from the Samsidh Bangalore schools, from categories under 11 to under 18. The children were enthusiastic from the registrations to the playing field.

As the saying goes, its not the team with the best players that win, it’s the players with the best team that wins!! We were able to witness the team spirit and sportsmanship by every team. It was inspiring to see the children in the playground giving the best to their teams. It was a great success and kudos to all the participants and winners.

Here are the glimpses of the day.
